

Anthony "Tony" Phillips is the HUB Coordinator for the University of North Carolina Greensboro (UNCG). As the HUB Coordinator, Tony is responsible to oversee the day-to-day operations and long-term strategies to the mission of the Historically Underutilized Business (HUB) Program at UNCG while providing minority and women-owned businesses equal access to participate in all aspects of the University's construction and procurement opportunities. Prior to being promoted to HUB Coordinator in 2009, Tony was a university project manager where he assisted with creating a strategic plan to increase minority participation resulting in exceeding the project's targeted diversity/inclusion goals.

Tony is a graduate of Florida A&M University with a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering Technology. He is also an NC HUB Office-Good Faith Effort Award (Owner/Agency) winner in recognition of his outstanding commitment to the HUB Program and Utilization of HUB Firms.
