

Chyna Terrell Green currently serves as the Sr. Diversity & Inclusion Specialist for JE Dunn Construction, a national commercial construction management firm headquartered in Kansas City, MO. Chyna joined JE Dunn supporting the seven east region offices with diversity and inclusion initiatives around workforce, workplace, and marketplace. She is a passionate diversity advocate who produces the quarterly content for the Dunn Diversity Newsletters in the East Region and manages the Minority Trade Partner Database. In 2019, Chyna assumed duties in the Carolina's market focusing on Raleigh and Charlotte. Her duties include building relationships with women and minority suppliers, vendors and construction-related businesses, tracking diversity activities and results, and increasing awareness among community stakeholders of JE Dunn's commitment to diversity as a critical business imperative.
