

Lekesha R. Shaw, Secretary
secretary@mwbecoordinators.org

Lekesha Shaw currently works with the City of Raleigh as an MWBE Coordinator in the Housing and Neighborhoods Department. She joined the City in February of 2019 to fill a newly created position designed to help meet the continued growth of the MWBE section's program, which plays an important role in the City.

Lekesha formerly worked with the Raleigh Area Development Authority (RADA). As their Executive Director, Lekesha was responsible for managing RADA's housing programs including but not limited to housing counseling and education services as well as supportive housing services such as the North Carolina Foreclosure Prevention Fund (NCFPF).

Lekesha left RADA to broaden her experience and further develop her career with the City of Raleigh. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from William Peace University
